

Studio Interdisciplinary Critique/Seminar / Fall 2007
Sarah Krepp, Professor

Announcing an interdisciplinary course for working artists and art teachers seeking aggressive studio practice. Artists from a variety of disciplines--including painting, sculpture, print-making, photography, installation, and mixed media--come together to discuss the expansive possibilities of their work. Through group critiques, field trips and artist studio visits, artists acquire knowledge, skills and methods of developing their work and transforming their ideas.

The course will have two sections. Critique/seminar sessions will be held at Sarah Krepp's studio, 311 Keeney Street, Evanston, from 7:00 pm to 10:00 pm, on the following dates:

Section I September 11
Tuesdays October 9
November 6

Section II September 19
Wednesdays October 10
November 7

In addition: (1) There will a combined all-day field trip on Saturday, October 5.

(2) An exhibition of works by the critique-group artists, curated by Sarah Krepp, is scheduled at the Noyes Cultural Arts Center, 927 Noyes Street, Evanston, from Sunday, November 18 through January. Both sections will participate in critique/discussion sessions at the exhibition space on:

Saturday, December 1, 10:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m. (lunch available)
Saturday, January 12, 10:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m. (lunch available)

Course fee $210 per person by August 24; $225 after August 24.
Enrollment is limited.
PLEASE ENROLL EARLY TO RESERVE YOUR SPACE

With an MFA from The School of the Art Institute of Chicago, Sarah Krepp has been a noted Chicago artist for more than 25 years. She has shown nationally and internationally, and her work is included in many corporate and private collections. Locally she is represented by Roy Boyd Gallery in Chicago.

She is Professor Emerita of Art and former Chair of the Painting Program in the School of Art and Design at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. She has over 20 years of teaching experience at The School of the Art Institute of Chicago, Southern Illinois University, the Burren College of Art (Ballyvaughn, Ireland), as well as the University of Illinois. She has taught freshman through graduate level courses in drawing, painting, sculpture, interdisciplinary and site-specific practice, and interdisciplinary critique. Many of her students have gone on to achieve significant success as practicing artists and art educators.
